

Total Home Education Options

Option 1: Total Home Education (T. H. E.) Program

For parents who desire to completely educate their child at home, Cross Creek provides a record keeping service for their student's cumulative files and formal transcripts. The T.H.E. Program offers the most flexibility by allowing the parent to choose the subjects and curricula tailored to their family's needs. Parents shall provide an academic plan at the beginning of each school year, outlining the course work that their student will be attempting. At the end of the fall and spring semesters, the school office will mail out a "reporting form". Parents are required to complete attendance and grade information for their student/s and return it to the school office.

Home educated students that successfully complete Cross Creek's graduation requirements will receive a Cross Creek High School Diploma and may participate in its graduation ceremonies.

Option 2: T.H.E. with Lesson Plans Program

Cross Creek provides lesson plans to T.H.E. students that correlate with the University Model classes and curriculum. Parents can choose this option if they wish to educate their student at home using Cross Creek lesson plans and curricula. Lesson plans are mailed to T.H.E. families at the beginning of each nine weeks.

Fee: Additional Fee of $100 per class per year.

Option 3: Blended with University Model Classes

Cross Creek offers classes in much the same way as a college or university. This system gives parents the freedom to decide which classes will enrich their child's educational program. Students can enroll in just one or two classes, or a full course of study. They attend class twice per week and receive detailed lesson plans to follow during the remaining three days of home study. Friday classes are only offered once a week, and include four days of lesson plans. You can choose to teach some subjects at home independently while taking only one or two courses at Cross Creek.

Please see this year's class schedule to discover what is being offered. Most classes are limited to twelve students. Each class has a set fee.

Please Note: You are responsible for purchasing your own materials. Cross Creek Christian School can order for you if you meet the ordering deadline.
